Notes:

Leonz Zacharias Birchler and Catharina Elisabetha Oechslin were married at the monastery church in Einsiedeln on Easter Sunday morning of 1852 and immediately left with twenty-seven other Einsiedlers to immigrate to the United States. They traveled aboard the Great Western, which embarked at Liverpool, England, and arrived at the Port of New York on 29 May 1852. They lived in Cincinnati, OH, for a year but settled in Louisville, KY, the next year. After the Bloody Monday riots in Louisville on 6 Aug 1855, they moved to Fulda, IN, where they owned a farm.

Leonz Zacharias Birchler and his family returned to Louisville before 1859. He bought property on the northeast corner of Jackson and Breckinridge Streets in 1860. He worked as a carpenter and later owned a profitable dairy farm in Bonnycastle Place near Cherokee Park. In 1880, he built a house on Workhouse (Lexington) Road in Gillman's Point (St. Matthews), where he and his wife lived the rest of their lives.

Leonz Zacharias Birchler was naturalized as a U. S. citizen on 1 Nov 1880 in Louisville, KY.

Meinrad Benedict Birchler served three enlistments with the 2nd Regiment of the Nebraska Infantry from 1882 to 1898 including the Spanish-American War.

Notes:

Arthur Titus was a physician who practiced medicine at Powellsville, OH, before the Civil War. He was educated at Starling Medical College, Columbus, OH, and Cincinnati College of Medicine, where he received his degree in 1861. In 1863 he enlisted in Company A of the 16th Regiment Ohio National Guards. In 1864 he was appointed Assistant Surgeon in the First Regiment of West Virginia Cavalry, and later was promoted to Surgeon of the Third West Virginia Cavalry. In the latter months of the war he served as acting Brigade Surgeon of the Third Brigade, Third Division of Cavalry, Custer's famous "Red Neck Tie" Brigade. After the war he practiced medicine in Wheelersburg, OH, but moved to Sturgeon, MO, in 1872. He returned to Portsmouth, OH, in 1881, where he remained actively engaged in the practice of his profession until his death.

Frank H. Titus was a surgeon who served with the U. S. Volunteers in the Philippines after the Spanish-American War.

Sarah Catherine Titus was the illegitimate daughter of Arthur Titus and Elizabeth McGee.

James Joseph O'Boyle

- b. 4 May 1851, Philadelphia, PA
- m. Bridget M. Mullen, 27 Dec 1880, Cincinnati, OH
- d. 2 Sep 1903, Denver, CO

Notes:

Honora Chambers Mullen immigrated to Philadelphia, PA about 1849, leaving her five children in Ireland, probably in an orphanage or in the care of relatives. She married James O'Boyle in Philadelphia about 1850, and, together with him, they had one son, James Joseph Boyle, born in 1851. The O'Boyle family moved to Louisville, KY before 1858.

The Mullen children immigrated to the United States one by one in the 1850s and 1860s as they reached about age 18. All of the children settled in Louisville by 1865. Mary Mullen immigrated in 1855, Margaret Mullen in 1856, Rose Mullen and Robert Mullen (underage) in 1859, and Ellen Mullen in 1864.

Robert Mullen was naturalized as a U. S. Citizen on 4 Dec 1875 in Louisville, KY.
